

Facts to Thrive Bizworthy Program Awarded Fifth Third Bank Grant

Bizworthy Business Plan Class

Atlanta— August 18, 2021 — Today, Facts to Thrive announced being selected for a $5,000 grant to assist in launching its new business plan development course Bizworthy in South Fulton. “We are delighted Fifth Third Bank has chosen to invest in our community. This program will help in efforts towards economic recovery with minorities and women,” said Tamiko Leverette, Executive Director/Founder.

Positive Customer Impact

The Small Business Administration documented the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on business owners have varied across demographic groups. However, the decline in business activity among Black owners has been nearly three times the decline among other owners. For over 160 years, Fifth Third Banking has helped small business achieve their dreams and economic development.

Product Availability

Bizworthy is a 7-week business plan class being held Mondays and Wednesdays starting October 11, 2021. Topics covered include business concept, marketing, and small business financial literacy.

Founded in 2019, Facts to Thrive mission is to provide training to alleviate human suffering from poverty, technology gaps, and incomplete life skills. The nonprofit organization offers a wide variety of community programs from financial literacy to senior technology.

###

The names of actual companies and products mentioned herein may be the trademarks of their respective owners.

For more information, press only:

Tamiko Leverette
(470) 765-8965
info@factstothrive.org

For more information on Product: www.FactsToThrive.org